from downtown North Conway. Less than half a mile down the road is Echo Lake, a beautiful little lake with a swimming beach and a lifeguard in the summertime, sitting just at the base of both Whitehorse and Cathedral Ledges. On your way into town, you will pass the popular Saco river, a great spot for kayaking or tubing on a hot summer day. Downtown North Conway has fun shops & boutiques, restaurants, and ice cream. Also nearby is the town of Jackson, another great spot to visit.

there are plenty of restaurants sitting on the deck in the morning with a cup of coffee and sitting nearby. We used the indoor fireplace around the fire pit in the evening.

which was nice and toasty and the kids made s'mores in the outdoor fire pit. They loved playing in the kids clubhouse and having fun in the large yard. The house is in a great location and many shops, restaurants and place's like Echo Lake and Cathedral Ledge are just a few minutes drive away. Thanks for a great stay!

The chalet is great! It was very clean and cozy! There is plenty of room and the kids loved it! The large kitchen has everything you need to make breakfast, lunch or dinner and

This location makes it easy to get to all of the places we wanted to visit during our stay. Once you learn your
